Susan Kemper appointed as Provincial Coach - High Performance

VANCOUVER – Synchro BC is pleased to announce that Susan Kemper has been hired as Provincial Coach – High Performance for the upcoming 2009-2010 season.

In her new role, Susan will be working alongside Danielle Hahn, Provincial Coach – Development, to implement the training program for the Canada Winter Games Team. In addition, Susan will perform outreach visits to each High Performance club, coordinate High Performance and Strive clinics, and instruct a High Performance Camp focusing on National Team Trials.

Susan has been involved in the BC synchro community for twenty-six years as both a swimmer and a coach, and is currently Head Coach at the BC Aquasonics High Performance Training Centre (BCAQ). Susan has extensive coaching experience and has achieved impressive results at both the national and international level.
