

TALENT IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM (TID) 2018-19 SEASON

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Synchro BC's High Performance Program is to identify and train BC's athletes with the greatest potential to be members of Synchro Canada's National Teams.

KEY STRATEGY

Synchro BC's Talent Identification (TID) Program will provide a sport academy environment geared towards training athletes with the common purpose of improving their individual skills in the sport of synchronized swimming.

- Incorporating the TID Integrated Support Team (IST) to work with the personal coaches of the TID Athletes;
- including the personal coaches in camps to deliver their personal expertise to TID Athletes; and,
- building excellent working relationships between our High Performance Director, TID Coaching Team, and the personal coaches of the TID Athletes through mentorship and High Performance club visits.

SIGNIFICANCE

Synchro BC's Vision is to build, sustain and advance excellence in all levels of synchronized swimming. Under the High Performance umbrella of sport there is no higher achievement than the National Team. By fostering programs that have the ability to place athletes onto the National Team we will ultimately be strengthening our Provincial Team, national stream clubs, and coaches while improving our provincial results in all competitive events.

TID PROGRAM GOALS

PHSSC (Positive, Healthy, Strong, Successful Champions):

- Encourage POSITIVE lifelong relationships
- Develop athletes with a HEALTHY mind/body relationship
- Building STRONG athletes
- Develop the physical and mental capacity to achieve SUCCESSFUL lifelong health and wellness

PRIORITIES

The 2018-19 season will consist of the training and competition of the 2019 Canada Winter Games Team for both the games and an additional summer competition.

1. TID Program – Athlete Selection

TID Program Trials will identify the Top 18 athletes in BC to participate alongside the already selected Top 12 CWG Team Athletes, totally 30 in the 2018-19 TID Program.

2. Training Program

a. 2019 Canada Winter Games Team

The Top 12 2019 CWG Team Athletes will be training for the Canada Winter Games Competition until mid-February. There will be some joint camps with the TID 18 athletes however the team training will be these athletes' number one priority.

b. Individualized – Personal Coaches & Club Development

Individualized training programs will be established for the 18 TID Athletes. Personal coaches will be engaged in the development of the individualized training programs and invited to participate in TID camps. Private training opportunities will be available to TID Athletes based on a program determined in collaboration with their respective personal coaches.

The 12 pre-selected Canada Winter Games Athletes will train for the games until after the competition where they will then join the TID athletes within the above training format.

3. Training Camps

A series of five training camps will provide opportunities for TID Athletes to improve their individual skills and abilities by training with the TID Coaching Team and accessing IST Team support.

IST Team Support will include, but is not limited to:
